The Way to Damascus: A new life begins

On April 2nd, 2009 at 17:30, an impressive artistic and cultural exhibition will open at the Christian Information Center at the Jaffa Gate of Old Jerusalem.

St. Paul, one of the most important and prominent figures in Christian history, a man who knew sharp turnings in the course of his life – his story will be told in an impressive exhibition through paintings by some of the greatest of European artists, photographs and words.

Among the artists presented are Caravaggio, Carracci, Rafael, El Greco, Velasquez, Rembrandt, Domenico, Guido Reni, Batoni and others.

The festive opening will take place in Italian, but all exhibit materials are translated into four languages: Italian, English, Hebrew and Arabic.

The public is invited to participate in the opening ceremony or to come and visit the exhibition from 9:00 am to 5:30 pm Monday through Friday and 9:00 am to 12:30 pm Saturdays.

The Jerusalem exhibition of "On the Way to Damascus: a new life begins" will close at the end of May and will then travel to Bethlehem and Nazareth.
